MET HORRIBLE DEATH.

Hugo Farmer Returning From Paris Is Instantly Killed.

Hugo I. L. Nov. 1.—(Special.)—W. I. Robinson of this place came to a horrible death Thursday, while returning home from Paris. He boarded the No. 4, the Frisco Flyer at Paris, apparently in an intoxicated condition and was last seen by parties on the train, at about the time Red river was reached, which is twelve miles south of Hugo. When the train reached Hugo, a big blot of blood was noticed on the side of the car. A search was instituted and Friday morning the mangled remains were found on the Frisco right-of-way, near the river, his head being almost severed from the body. The deceased leaves a wife and three children. He was a farmer, but had been living in town.
